UM LAW SCHOOL DEAN
REELECTED VICE PRESIDENT OF LAWS CONFERENCE

MISSOULA--

Robert E. Sullivan, dean of the University of Montana School of Law, has been reelected vice president of the Uniform Laws Conference at the annual ULC meeting in Vail, Colo.

Sullivan will continue to supervise the work of the special committees of the conference. He said his main duty will be to insure that committee members "work expeditiously and have drafts of the Uniform Acts available for consideration by the Uniform Laws Conference at its annual meetings."

The purpose of the national organization is to gain uniformity in laws passed by state legislatures. Other representatives to the conference from Montana include James T. Harrison, Helena, Chief Justice of the Montana Supreme Court, and Alex Blewett, Great Falls, an attorney.

Sullivan was also appointed to a seven-man standing committee on the Uniform Consumer Credit Code at the 1971 meeting. He had been a member of the special committee of the Uniform Laws Conference that drafted the Uniform Consumer Credit Code. The standing committee was appointed to secure enactment of the Uniform Credit Code in states where it has not been made law. Idaho, Wyoming, Colorado, Utah, Indiana and Oklahoma have been the states to adopt the code.

The UM law dean said that he would ask Gov. Anderson to appoint a study committee on the subject in preparation for the 1973 Montana legislative session.
